

ROUND TOP, Sept. 21, 1896.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Yesterday, Sunday the 20th, the Round Top Rifle Club according to their advertisement, gave their annual Kingshoot, also a prize-shoot in the forenoon. The Round Top brass band under the leadership of Prof. Geo. Etzel, marched the king of 1895, Mr. Hy. Etzel, to the Round Top Schuetzen park, where the Kingshoot then began.

In this contest Mr. Hy. G. Pochmann gained the championship and was declared king. Afterwards the prize-shoot began which was kept up until dark; the following prizes were captured by the following gentlemen to-wit:

1st prize, H. G. Pochmann, Round Top, out of possible $6 made 35, $15; 2nd, Charles Garlin, Rockhouse, 34 $12; 3rd, J. Coufal, Rockhouse, 34, $9; 4th, Hy. Weik-1, Round Top, 34, $7; 6th, Hermann Boettcher, Oldenburg, 34, $5; 6th, Chas. Levien, Round Top, 34, $4; 7th Otto Helmecke, Round Top, 34 $3; 8th, Aug. Huehnfeld, Warrenton, 34, $2; 9th, Joe Hafernick Warrenton, 34, $1.50; 10th, Geo. Bell, Haw Creek, 34, $1; 11th, Ed. Wiederaenders, Round Top, 33, $0.50.

After dinner there was public speaking. The following gentlemen spoke: Mr. Percy Faison, candidate for county attorney, spoke in English; Mr. Joseph Ehlinger, candidate for county judge spoke in German, also F. A. Schlick, candidate for Representative, spoke in German and mostly about the amendments. Mr. Kaeuemscher, of Austin, spoke in the interest of the Hermann Soehne. After that the ball began in the Round Top Schuetzen hall. The feast was not as well attended as usual, then about dinner it started to rain and rained a very good shower.